THE SQUIRE'S CLOSE CALL.

ONLY WINS THE SEABREEZE STAKES BY INCHES IN A DESPERATE FINISH.

Lawton Wiggins Scores Again-Fort Johnson Wins Mr. Sanford His First Race Since the Saratoga Meeting.

New York, September 18.—The Seabreeze Stakes as the special feature of a good off-day card at travesend this afternoon, and it resulted in one of the most thrilling struggles for supremacy between wo game thoroughbreds that has been seen this eason. The finish was so close between The Squire and Arasee that very few of the spectators had ettled convictions as to which one of the pair should e awarded the race.

A. G. Blakeley's inadequately ridden Arasee was clearly the best and suffered a fluke defeat hy inches where he should have won off by himself. Dugan outmaneuvered and outfinished Sweet throughout the race in the most aggravating and tantalizing fash-ion. By getting his mount shut off by the leader, when he had the whole track to himself. Arasee's jockey accomplished a feat that is probably unique in riding hereabouts. Antagus Black Oak and Fri-

It remained for the fifth race to climax the present season's sprinkling of joke races. To begin with, Juggler apparently stripped too sore to be moved out of his stall. Red Friar's trainer declared that it was 100 to 1 that his horse would not circle the track and it was asserted and generally believed that Milford's bowed tendon would not survive the strain of another race. This left Wild Refrain the only sound horse in the field and J. L. McGinnis, his owner, was beguiled into the placing of a good wager on him. In the running Juggler simply played with the two remaining contestants after Red Friar had refused to budge at the start. No amount of persuasion would induce the old rogue to proceed faster than a walk and it took quite a long time before he was cajoled into leaving the track.

The presence of Duke of Roanoke, a Whitney enter the closing race, injected considerable interesting the con he was cajoled into leaving the track.

The presence of Duke of Roanoke, a Whitney entry, in the closing race, injected considerable interest into what would otherwise have been of no interest into what would otherwise have been of no interest. Mr. Joyner told his friends that the three-year-old Hamburg gelding had worked a mile in 1:42½ at the farm just before being shipped to Sheepshead Bay. This tip caused a big plunge to center on Duke of Roanoke, and as he had nothing much to beat the Brookdale debutante was able to make good.

The day was summerlike and the attendance cxcellent. Some of the recently appointed female slenths were on hand to have another try for violators of the Hart-Agnew law, but beyond exciting many curious stares they did not accomplish anything. For the first day in three years the names of the Jockeys riding in the different races were promptly posted on the jockey board.

G. M. Odom is going to California with his string of racers, including Trance. Nimbus, Juggler and others, and will ship early enough to be there for the opening of the winter season racing in November.

others, and will ship early enough to be there for the opening of the winter season racing in November.

Footpad was reclaimed from the first race for C. R. Fleischmann by J. J. Hyland, acting as agent. The claiming price of the Keene cast-off, which ran in S. F. Hyman's colors today, was $1,950.

Thomas Welsh will sail for Frauce tomorrow on the Atlantic transport line steamer Minnehaba. He is taking James Casey along with him for company. Mediant came out of her last race a trifle sore. This has disappeared and she worked seven furlongs yesterday hard held in 1:30 for tomorrow's Junior Champhon Stakes.

Harry C., better known as "The Lord," McManus, ome of the best-known characters on the American turf, died on Wednesday night after an illness of several nonths.

George A. Wheelock has $10,000 invested on Chamler's chances for governor at evens and is accommodating all comers at the same price. Tom Shaw het $5,000 with Henry Harris, the latter taking the Hughes end. Robert Angarola made two wagers during the morning of $5,000 and $7,000 on Chamler and has $13,000 more. This is probably Big Tim' Sullivan's money. The majority of these bets were booked at the track this afternoon.

It developed today that the reason Governor Hughes was not invited to speak at the annual Westchester County Fair and Horse Show, now being held on the White Plains fair grounds, was because the trotting men declared that they would not race their horses if the governor was present.

BRANDT AND SCHREIBER HORSES MOVE.

New York, September 18.—The horses in Herman Brandt's stable left today for St. Louis. With the lot were Jack Atkin, Emperor William, Gresham and Alice George, belonging to Barney Schreiber. Tom McGrath and Harrigan were among the Brandt horses, The horses will go to Woodlands to rest up for two weeks and then go on to California for a winter campaign, mainly at Oakland, though Jack Atkin will be entered in stakes at both Oakland and Santa Anita. The horses have done well in Brandt's lands. Jack Atkin is the leader, with twelve races, among them the Carter and Metropolitan Handicans, To date Jack Atkin has this season won $3,190. Tom McGrath has won six races out of nineteen starts and $3,665, and Harrigan has been first in seven out of seventeen races and won $5,335.

READY FOR THE START AT LEXINGTON.

Every Prospect Points to Excellent Racing with the Best Western Horses in Opposition.

Lexington, Ky., September 18.—If local sentiment is a safe criterion by which to judge, then the com-ing seven days' meeting to be inaugurated tomorrow at the old historic Lexington track should not fall is a safe criterion by which to judge, then the coming seven days' meeting to be inaugurated tomorrow at the old historic Lexington track should not fall below the standard of the most successful undertaken in this section. Many of the most prominent horsemen with strong stables have shipped here from other tracks, especially to show their loyalty to Kenucky and the grand sport and their representation has filled every available stall. Probably not in a decade has there been concentrated at the track such a band of good horses, fit and available to measure strides. For the first time in twenty-two years will the racing enthusiasts have a chance to dally with chance by the pari-mutuel and auction pool selling system of speculation, a favorite method of the old-timers, but little known to the newer generation of race followers. The consensus of opinion today is that the mutuels will meet with favor. Five mutuel machines have been installed, of which three will be for $5 investors and two for the $2 bettor. The machines were tested this afternoon and found to be in good working order by ringmaster Eugene Elrod.

Auction pool selling will be undertaken at the track tonight at eight o'clock. This is in the nature of an experiment and if successful will be to remainder of the meeting and may be kept up at Louisville.

All the officials who will serve at the track are or band, presiding judge Price being the latest to get in. There will be no scarcity of riding material, but the quality will not be up to the average. Jimmy Butler will probably be the star. He arrived this morning from New York. The promising light weight, A. Walsh, who achieved considerable success in California and Seartle, is due to arrive tomorrow morning and will ride free lance.

Several additional stables reached here this morning, including that of John Markiein. The long including that of John Markiein. The long including that of John Markiein. The long is not provided regard additional stables reached here this moraling in the basis.

JOHN M'CAFFERTY'S ARGENTINA TRIP.

New York September 18.—John J. McCafferty's turf relations with lawyer Jere Wernberg, of Brooklyn, will soon be dissolved. Wernberg's horses, including Masquerade, Grimaldi, Frizette, Big Ben. Druid and Tubal, will be sold at public auction at Gravesend next Thursday. McCafferty will sail for Buenos Ayres October 20, and will arrive there about November 16. McCafferty says that he has received a sort of an offer to train some horses there, but will take no racers with him. He has been identified with the turf in this country for many years. Some time ago, because of a selling race war with "Boots" Durnell, at Los Angeles, McCafferty and Durnell were both ruled off the turf. only to be reinstated later. McCafferty formerly trained for Wernberg, but since he got out of his California trouble he has not had a license to train on the Jockev Club's tracks. Still, he has had a say in the handling of Wernberg's horses, though not actually saddling them.

McCafferty is a Texan by birth and speaks Spanish like a native. This talent will be handy to him in Argentina. He began his turf career as a stable boy and has been rider, trainer, owner and breeder in all American corners. McCafferty will first try his luck in the Argentine Republic. If he does not make out well there he will try England and then France and finally Germany.

There is no reason why McCafferty would not do well and and then France and finally Germany. New York, September 18 .- John J. McCafferty's

HUGH M'CARREN IS A STAYER.

Lexington, Ky., September 18.—Hugh McCarren has the stallion Hapsburg, ten mares and ten weanlings—the youngsters all the get of Hapsburg—at J. V. Shipp's Sunny Slope Stud, near Midway, and he says he intends to keep them there as long as he is able to pay their bills. "The sport of racing is in a bad way, but I feel that it is bound to come into its own again," said McCarren a day or two ago. "If I should put my horses on the market now I would have to sacrifice them, so I have made up my mind to keep them as long as I am able to pay their bills. They cost me about $200 a month and if I car't pick that up in racing the little potato business in New York will produce the necessary coin for a while, at any rate. Holding thoroughbreds, that is, a good stallion and mares, at this time is much the same as making an investment in the market. If you can pay and wait you are sure to win in the end."

Mr. McCarren is breaking two yearling fillies by Hapsburg. One is a chestnut out of Ethel Wheat, and the other is a bay out of Snare. He says the Ethel Wheat filly is as fine an individual as he ever saw, and he has great expectations for her in a racing way.

OTTAWA, ONT., RACING PROJECT MOVES.

Ottawa, Ont., September 18 .- J. F. Ryan, of New

Ottawa, Ont., September 18.—J. F. Ryan, of New York, and A. Sherrer, of Montreal, are here in connection with the proposed new race track and this morning they started out to the property under option to take levels.

The people behind the scheme have 200 acres under option and it would be close to the city. The idea is to put up a track and clubhouse along the lines of Blue Bonnets. To do this it is estimated that $150,000 would be required. The promoters of the scheme would have little trouble in raising this amount, as already many prominent horsemen in Ottawa and Montreal have agreed to take large blocks of stock.

The Ottawa program is to race spring and fall and follow Blue Bonnets. It is altogether likely that a strong Canadian circuit, taking in Toronto, Montreal, Hamilton, Ottawa, Fort Erie and Windsor, will be formed.

Many prominent turfmen on the other side are willing to assist in backing the Canadian tracks on account of the anti-betting laws over the border. The promoters figure on a membership of about 300 for the Ottawa Racing Association.

JENNINGS HORSES IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco, Cal., September 18.—The first string to arrive in California from New York is that of W. B. Jennings. The Jennings horses are now stabled at Los Angeles. Jennings himself came on to Emeryville and is at his ranch at Woodland. Julia Powel, Miss Norfolk and seven yearlings were among those brought out. Jennings says he will not return to the east next summer unless the atmosphere has cleared.

Stable room at Emeryville will not be available until Tuesday. Superintendent Grant is busy putting the course into racing shape and besides a number of the stalls are undergoing repairs. An inch and a half of rich loam is being sprinkled on the course, On account of the immense amount of top covering put on last year, very little is required this fall.

SARATOGA STILL ANGRY AT GOV. HUGHES. Personal Liberty League Has 1,500 Members Pledged to Vote Against the Governor.

Saratoga, N. Y.. September 18.—It seemed as though it needed only the nomination of Governor Hughes to touch off the enthusiasm of the members of Saratoga Branch, Personal Liberty League. At a meeting of the branch at which officers were elected it was announced that it now has 1,500 members, every one of them a voter who will vote against Hughes.

Hughes.

The officers elected were: President, Fred M. Waterbury; vice-president, William B. Milliman; treasurer, William D. Eddy, and secretary, James N. Heaslip.

treasurer, William D. Eddy, and secretary, James N. Heasilp.

The members of the branch were elated with the nomination of Governor Hughes for re-election. They all preferred to meet him at the polls and there encompass his defeat rather than in the convention. The right place to fight this matter out," said President Waterbury. "Is the field where it will now be fought. There might have been a question as to whether or not the state convention had followed the will of the people. There can be no doubt as to the verdict that will be rendered next November. "Practically all of our 1,500 members are Republicans. I think at least eighty per cent of them are before. Not one of them will vote for him this time. If it is any satisfaction to him to know that the voters of his party have turned against him I trust be enjoys it to the full extent."

THIRTY LEADING TRAINERS.

To Andrew Jackson Joyner belongs the distinction of having saddled more winners this year than any other trainer in this country. It is not an unknown honor to Joyner, but he probably enjoys being the leader again just as well as if he had not before experienced the pleasure of heading his skilled competitors. J. Collins, trainer for Ed Corrigan, is his closest follower, with John E. Madden a good third. The thirty leading trainers and the number of winners they have each sent to the post are as follows:

TORONTO RACING AT HAND.

FALL MEETING OF THE ONTARIO JOCKEY CLUB REGINS AT WOODRINE TODAY.

Two Valuable Stakes with Big Lists of Probable Starters on the Program-Hotels and Stables Crowded.

Toronto, Ont., September 18.—The fall meeting of the Ontario Jockey Club opens tomorrow with one of the best cards yet presented on the famous Woodbine course. Secretary Fraser has provided as attractions the Toronto Autumn Cup, a handlcap at one mile and a quarter, in which a field of sixteen of the best long-distance horses on the grounds have accepted; a purse at six furlongs, in which a high-class field of sprinters are entered, and the September Steeplechase over the two-mile course. Large fields are named to go in the seven races, ninety-three in all being named to go to the post. With track conditions excellent the chances are that scratches will be few.

The steeplechase promises to be a strenuous chase.

three in all being named to go jo the post. With track conditions excellent the chances are that scratches will be few.

The steeplechase promises to be a strenuous chase, as the club has had all the fences in the steeplechase course stiffened since last spring. This means that riders will be forced to be cautious in rushing their mounts at the different obstacles, and that it will take a safe fencer to cover the jumps. It will be real steeplechasing, such as was witnessed here during the day of old Lion Heart, which was rated as the best jumper ever developed in Canada.

Visitors from different poinfs kept pouring in today and hotel accommodations are now at a premium, Indications are that fully forty books will be in line and the walk around system will be in vogue. There are fully 600 horses here, among them the pick of the stables which took part in the recent Montreal meeting. Jockey Powers and his manager. L. Cahn, got in from Lexington last night, and P. T. Chinn will have first call on his services during the meeting. Willie Applezate got in from Scattle yesterday, and W. Beverly got in from Chicago this morning. Roger Minton has received three additions to his stable in the horses Holloway, Annie Marie and Apple Toddy which got in from New York.

Judge J. J. Burke, handicappers Hassard, Short and Gerhardy, and starter Dade arrived yesterday, and the official staff will be the same as in the spring.

AUSTRALIAN IDEAS OF ENGLISH RACING.

w. Reiso, of Sydney, Australia, a racing expert in the antifpodes and a close observer, drew some interesting comparisons between English and Anstralian racing for the Australasian when he got back to Sydney.

"Australians don't realize how well they're treated in racing matters until they go to England," said the Sydney man. "The expenses are heavier, and you do not get the same comfort. At some of the courses it is difficult to get a look at the horses before they go out to race, and then they finish away from you. At Flemington, a Newmarket handicap down the straight six furlongs is a bad race to see, but at Newmarket they have mile and a quarter races over a straight course. Newmarket is an immense place, and Randwick seems quite a pony track by comparison. I suppose there are fully 5,000 horses trained at Newmarket, and there is no such thing as timing gallops there. It was a great sight on berby day, the crowd making a Melbourne Cup attendance look quite small. However, of the courses I visited, the one I liked best for a day's racing was Sandown Park, at Esher, about sixteen miles from London, while Hurst Park, Kempton and Newbury are also up to date.

"All the jockeys in England ride very short, and I'd like to hear our trainers when they saw each rider come out with his knees level with his mount's withers. At the machine a lot of fractiousness is usual, and the starter does not appear to have the same control over the boys that is customary here. The horses spread out a lot at the barrier, owners and trainers being afraid that if they line up close together damage is almost certain to result from kicking. Most of the starts are effected hen the borses are more or less on the move, and an attempt to beat the barrier does not get a rider into rowners and trainers being afraid that if they line up close one to be a sea more or less on the move, and an attempt to beat the barrier does not get a rider into rowner in the same control over the bows that is customary here. The horses pare more or less on the

STABLE WINNINGS OF AUGUST BELMONT.

Because of the speed and gameness of Fair Play, Priscillian and Field Mouse, August Belmont is enjoying the most successful racing campaign financially that has fallen to his lot in a number of years, with every reason to expect that his stable earnings will be materially increased before snow flies. "LUCKY" Jack McGinnis has had extremely hard luck with his horses this season. In the last year he has paid $30,000 for thoroughbreds, including yearlings, but has only a lot of cripples for his trouble. He sold 0. U. Kid and Cairngorm to G. F. Frazier for $500 each and disposed of My Maritch to W. Harris for $450. McGinnis paid $5,200 for Masque last season, but says he will sell the colt now for $100 to any breeder that may want him for stud purposes. It is said that McGinnis will breed his mare. Notasuka, to the Collar stallion. Frank Gill, next year. McGinnis had an idea some time ago that he would go to California this winter, but he says that as it would be a case of "dog eat dog" there he had decided to remain in the east. "If the big tracks do not run next year." said the young turfman, "I will race at some of the county fairs, where, I understand, some pretty fair purses will be hung up."

In King's Daughter and Berwick, T. C. McDowell owns two of the best horses campaigned over the Canadian tracks this year. King's Daughter is a five-year-old bay mare by Ornament—Queenlike II. and is berhaps the best daughter of Ornament. She made her debut at Lexington, May 3, 1905, and won four consecutive races there and at Louisville, all purses, Her only other win as a two-year-old was the Willow Handicap at Gravesend, in which she defeated Toots Mook, Ruth W., Tangle, Whimsical and ten more filles. As a three-year-old she won the Kentucky Oaks from Lady Navarre, Lady Anne and Helena C., and at Sheepshead Bay, with 113 pounds up, won the Coney Island Handicap, defeating Prince Hamburg, 124, and Roseben, 143, with Bedouin, Kiamesha, Hooray, Aeronaut and Halifax unplaced, running the three-quarters of a mile of the race in 1:122. Her principal success last year was in winning the Culver Handicap at Gravesend in which, carrying 110 pounds, she beat Suffrage, 124, Brookdale Nymph, 119, and Sewell, 112, Handzarra, Dreamer, Bat Masterson and Belle of Iroquois also starting.

Having been accustomed to competing with such high-class horses it was to be expected that she would shine when pitted against those she was called upon to meet in the west and Canada this year and she has given some notable displays of speed and ability to carry weight. At New Orleans she ran three-quarters in 1:13; seven-eighths in 1:26, and five-eightls in 1:00. At Louisville she won at seven furlongs in 1:26 and a mile in 1:382, and it e-cipaths in 1:04, and in 1:382, and it e-cipaths in 1:04, and an ine in 1:382, and at a mile and seventy yards with 124 pounds on her back made a new American record by tunning the distance in 1:424. She is to be raced at Oakland next winter and if she remains sound and in good form, may be expected to further distinguish herself. Her racing record is as follows:

FAST AND FAINT-HEARTED DE MUND.

Paul Rainey still persists in trying the fast De Mund, which apparently refuses to stay any distance. De Mund cost Mr. Rainey $45,000 to acquire, has cost him $40,000 more in unkeep, racing fees and bets, and has returned him $10,600, won since his purchase in May, 1906, $5,000 as a two-year-old. $5,100 last season and $500 this. Before Newton Bennington sold him to Mr. Rainey De Mund had won $23,600. In three racing seasons De Mund had earned $34,200 and won nine races, five of which were for his present owner. Here is the racing record of "The Lemon," the name by which De Mund is known to the New York racing public:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey Sweet will remain in New York to ride for John E. Madden and T. W. Coulter and will then go to California.

James Healey has turned out Michael Murphy's thoroughbreds at Oceanport and taken to the trotters again. Mr. Healey is racing a string on the fair circuit. He is now at Syracuse.

James B. Brady has released Jockey Garner. The Iowa lad is riding in good form, but Mr. Brady has so few horses Matt Allen does not think keeping a jockey worth while, then, too, Garner is less than a good actor.

Conservative observers of the present situation predict that if speculation continues to be permitted, even under the restrictions that attend it, the sport will in time regain much of its vanished popularity.

Hessian will not be put up with A. J. Joyner's horses that are to be sold at auction September 26, before the departure of the North Carolina turfman for Europe. The Watercress horse is the property of James B. Haggin, and he is lame.

James B. Haggin, the biggest breeder in America, is quoted as saying that the foals by Hermis are among the best that he has ever seen. H. M. Ziegler, who bought Hermis for $900 at the Thomas sale last week, now declares that he would not take $25,000 for the son of Hermence, which will be sent to Kentucky for stud purposes.

In reality the Doncaster St. Leger is a more interesting contest than even the Derby, for the reason that the best of the colts and the best of the fillies so frequently meet; and it has happened on many occasions that the winner of the Oaks has shown her superiority to the winner of the Oaks has shown her superiority to the winner of the Oaks has shown her superiority to the winner of the Oaks has shown her superiority to the winner of the Oaks has shown her superiority to the winner of the Oaks has shown her superiority to the winner of the Oaks has shown her superiority to the winner of the Oaks has shown her superiority to the winner of the Oaks has shown her superiority to the winner of the Oaks has shown her superiority to the winner of the Oaks has shown her superiority to the winner of the Oaks has shown her superiority to the winner of the Oaks.

J. B. Ewing, breeder of the pacing star Minor Heir, 1:594, bought his dam for $65. The sensational green pacer earned his oats by working on a rural mail delivery route when he was three years old. Ewing sold him for $4,500 last year to P. C. Isaacs, his present owner. Western horsemen are unanimous in the belief that with continued soundness Minor Heir will beat all legitimate pacing records. He has stepped a half mile in 58—a 1:56 gait—at Galesburg.

Peter C., Detroit, Mich. Repeat your question and give the date when the bet was made. Querie, Chicago. Since you have evidently in pected the chart of the race your question was an wered when you made the inspection. F. E. S. and F. S., Buffalo, N. Y. It was a telegraphic error. Went to post at 3:23. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. The Squire beat the barrier and his rider made the most of if, set he pace to the stretch, was headed by Arisee and seemed beaten, but got up finally in a terrific final drive. Arasee, reserved under pull in forward pursuit, moved up prematurely after being slut off and lost what seemed a certain victory by an inadequate finish. Antaeus, nearly left, trailed to the stretch and, finishing fast, got up in the last stride for third place. Black Oak ran forwardly for the first mile and tired. Frizette, nearly left, closed 2 gap. The winner was entered for $700; no bid.

Went to post at 3:55. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Fort Jelased. Delirium ran in forward and persistent pursuit of the winner throughout and was a fast going scond. Golden Pearl, after strenuous contention for the first half, tired and swerved badly at the end. Creation, well up from the start, made a closing sprint and is very good. Nimbus seemed unable to raise a respectable gallop. Stargowan ran forwardly all the way.
